This is me when I first came into Great Dane Rescue....

I was so tired, dirty and sore.

My leg was broken so bad that I had to have it removed, but I got this really cool plastic collar.

Here I am recuperating with my foster family...

Thank You for making the hurt go away.....

I might have three legs, but I am still a determined puppy.

By the way. Who is this Rocky Balboa person?
Big deal he ran up some steps, let's see him do it with one leg!

Which one of you keeps calling me “tripod”?

What’s next, “where is my saddle?”

Nothing like a nice day
with your friends

After a long hard day of recuperating,
I just need a good chew!

He He He, garden art.....

Excuse me, would you happen to have a cookie on you?

My sisters told me I was going to a new forever home.....

I sure am going to miss my sisters, but I hope my new home will love me as much as my foster mom...

I'm waitin' for my new family...

I think my foster mom is sad I'm going.
But if it wasn't for her, GDRi., and everyone that donated their money and time...

Wait a second, who the heck is this giving me a kiss?
And what does he mean minivan?!?

OOOHHH, this is a minivan...

You just gotta love air conditioning.
Home James.....

I am taking a nap with my big sister Callee. She grumbles a lot and that is ok, because I can't hear her!

Here is my new brother, Hemi & my other sister Lexi!

I really like this toy.....

Wait a minute, this bone is nice too.

I like to watch my mom wiggle her toes.

Hold on, I have an itch

Wow, I'm ok now, my itch is gone!

Hey, did anyone else see the cat?

I feel much better now...

Thank you all from the bottom of my heart. I will make it, don't feel bad for me, please keep helping all my brother and sisters.
